

REQUEST FOR QUALIFICATIONS – SPECIAL INSPECTIONS AND MATERIALS TESTING FOR THE STOKES COUNTY JAIL EXPANSION

Qualifications For the Stokes County Jail Expansion (1013 North Main Street in Danbury, North Carolina) Special Inspections per Chapter 17 of the North Carolina State Building Code will be received from qualified firms, properly licensed under the laws of the State of North Carolina, by the Owner at the Stokes County – Support Services Office, Attn: Danny Stovall, 1014 North Main Street Danbury, North Carolina 27016 no later than August 29, 2017, at 3:00 pm local prevailing time. Qualifications received after August 29, 2017, at 3:00 pm, will be rejected & returned to the Offeror unopened.

Date/Time: August 29, 2017, at 3:00 pm

Project Name: Stokes County Jail Expansion

Project Address: 1013 North Main Street Danbury, North Carolina 27016

Owner: Stokes County

Architect: Moseley Architects (Charlotte NC)

Civil Engineer: McGill Associates (Hickory NC)

The Scope of Work Includes providing special inspections and materials testing per Chapter 17 of the North Carolina State Building Code for an approximately 15,000 square foot jail addition. A Schedule of Special Inspections is included in the project manual, available below.

Construction Documents may be obtained through www.moseleyarchitects.com/bidding, (starting July 17, 2017) scroll to the project name, view all the documents.

Please limit proposals to no more than 5 pages. The proposals should include the following:

- A brief listing of the firms experience conducting this type of work.
- The number of employees, along with job classification, within the firm that would/could be assigned to work on this project.
- Billing rates for the proposed personnel to be used on this project.

Proposals should be delivered to:

Danny Stovall
Stokes County Support Services
1014 North Main Street
Danbury NC 27016